'May I have three hot dogs, a packet of French fries and a cup of hot chocolate, please?' Wonderboy asks.

5 'Which French fries do you want, large or small?' asks the cashier.

'Large, please. Saving people makes me hungry!' says Wonderboy.
'How much is it altogether?'

'It's fifty-eight dollars,'
says the cashier. Wonderboy 10 starts counting his money.

At the next counter, Batboy says, 'May I have two slices of pizza, an apple pie and a cup of hot chocolate, please?'

- 15 But there is no more hot chocolate. Batboy is sad. He orders a can of cola instead.

'That's forty-three dollars altogether,' says the cashier.

Batboy gives the cashier a coupon.

- 20 'Sorry! You can't use this coupon,' says the cashier.

Just then, Batboy hears Wonderboy say, 'Oh dear! I only have fifty dollars.'

- 25 'Deal!' says Wonderboy.
