Funny childhood memories

What funny things happened when you were little? This month, Primary 4 pupils share some humorous childhood memories.

When I was four, my hair was very long and untidy. I couldn't comb it by myself. My big sister could comb her hair by herself because it wasn't very long.

My dad said he could cut my hair. Unfortunately, when he finished, the left side was longer than the right. He cut some more to make it even. After that, the right side was longer than the left so he kept cutting. In the end, my hair was very short! I felt sad. I cried and cried. That was the last time Dad cut my hair! We all laugh about it now.

When I was five, I couldn't tie my shoelaces. My big brothers could tie their shoelaces by themselves, so I asked them to teach me. The first time I tied my shoelaces by myself, I tied them together. When I tried to walk, I fell over!

Flora, 4B

When I started kindergarten, I didn't know what to take with me. I said to my big sister Amy, 'You can pack your school bag by yourself. Can you help me?'

Amy told me to pack my pyjamas, four towels and six cans of cola. I couldn't carry my bag by myself because it was very heavy. Amy couldn't stop laughing. Then Dad told Amy off. In the end, Amy helped me pack the right things for school.

What funny childhood memories do you have? Why are they funny?
