

Reading

Read the story.

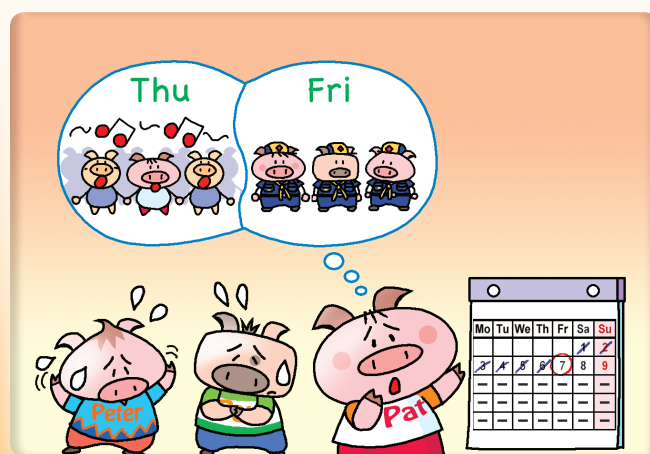

The three little pigs are inside Pat's brick house. Paul and Peter are afraid because Big Bad Wolf is outside.

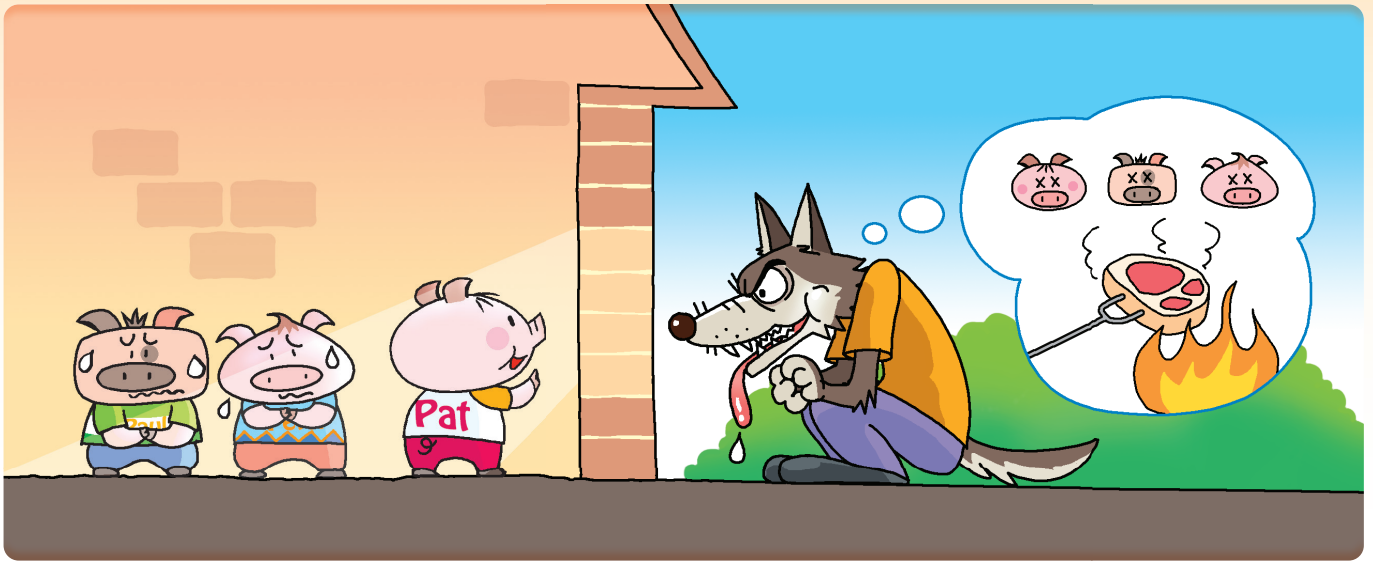

Pat says, 'The wolf can't hurt us here.' Peter is still
5 worried. He says, 'We can't stay here forever. I study with my tutor on Mondays and Paul has piano lessons on Tuesdays.'

Now Pat is worried too. He 10 says, 'I go to choir practice on Thursdays. We all go to Cub Scouts on Fridays.' Paul says, 'Today is Friday! We're having a barbecue!'

Pat has an idea. He shouts, 'Mr Wolf! Are you hungry?' 'Yes! Yes!' shouts Big Bad Wolf. 'Come to Cub Scouts with us. We can all have a barbecue,' says Pat. Big Bad Wolf likes this idea.

At the Cubs' barbecue, there are lots of yummy vegetables. Wolf is very happy. He says, 'This food is fantastic. Vegetables taste better than little pigs any day of the week!' 'Hurray!' shout the little pigs.

Do you like Pat's idea? Why / Why not? Imagine you are the pigs. What can you do when the wolf is outside?