Buddy is a clever dog. He is so clever that he keeps a diary!

Sunday 13th June

5 This morning I was excited because Vincent did not have school. I wanted to go to the park but Vincent was busy. First, he chatted with his friend on the phone. I was bored and I started barking. Woof! Woof!

Then, Vincent went into the kitchen to get a drink. I wagged my tail. Oops! I knocked over Vincent's drink.

10 In the afternoon Vincent studied in his bedroom. I jumped on the desk because I wanted to play with him. Vincent's books fell on the floor. Oh dear!

15 I felt bad. Vincent was busy but I gave him trouble! I put my head on Vincent's knees and stayed quiet. After that, Vincent finished his revision quickly. In the evening we painted pictures together.

The next day, Buddy met his friend Bella.

'Did you enjoy the weekend? What did you do?' Buddy asked.

'Yes, I did. I went to the beach with Jenny! How about you? Where did you go?' Bella asked.

20 'I stayed at home,' Buddy said.

'Boring!' said Bella.

'No! I had a great time with Vincent. We're best buddies,' said Buddy.

When you want to play but your parents are busy, what do you do?
